SEB Diversified V8

Fact sheet as of 29 January, 2021

Past performance does not guarantee future performance. The value of investment funds and other financial instruments may rise as well as fall and there is no guarantee you will recover your original investment. Key Information Document and prospectuses are available on www.sebgroup.lu/funds.

The fund aims to create capital growth in the long term from an absolute perspective. Consequently the fund has no benchmark. The fund has the flexibility to invest in one or several asset classes and is not restricted to investing in a specific geographical area. The fund targets an average volatility of 8%. The management team make active investment decisions and typically invests the cash in short term bonds issued by governments or companies with the aim to generate the risk free rate of return. In pursuit of excess return, the team primarily takes derivatives positions, mainly in futures and forwards, on underlying equity indices, government bonds, currencies, short term interest rates and commodity related instruments. The positions may be long, meaning they will gain in a rising market or lose in a falling market; or short, meaning they will lose in a rising market or gain in a falling market. Transaction costs may be high due to the fund's strategy. Transactions costs are taken from the fund. The performance of the fund prior to Oct 1, 2018 was with a different investment strategy than the fund 's current investment strategy.

INVESTMENT TEAM

The fund is managed by our Quantitative Strategies and Liquid Alternatives team with Otto Francke and Mikael Nilsson as the lead portfolio managers. The team, based in Stockholm, has extensive experience of systematic strategies.
